

YANGON UNIVERSITY OF FOREIGN LANGUAGES
JOURNAL OF LANGUAGE, LITERATURE AND SOCIAL SCIENCE(JLLS)
(PEER-REVIEWED JOURNAL)

About the Journal; its focus and scope

Journal of Language, Literature and Social Science (JLLS) is a professional, peer-reviewed journal that aims to support a culture of impactful research which should be independent, relevant and applicable, through collaboration with domestic and international partners.

The journal provides a platform for different theoretical, practical and empirical approaches to Language and Language Teaching, Linguistics, Literature, and Social Science subjects such as Geography, History, International Relations, Oriental Studies and Philosophy.

It welcomes papers from both local and international academicians, researchers and authors who are interested in language& linguistics, literature, social sciences, and action research.

Peer Review Process

Peer review process will be conducted by the outside reviewers who are experts in the related fields of Language, Literature and Social Science in collaboration with the Research Committee of YUFL. Peer review enables researchers to receive critical feedback from experts on the individual submitted paper. Each submitted paper will be reviewed by at least three experts.

Publication and Open Access

This Journal of Language, Literature and Social Science (JLLS) is targeted to be published this year (2022) and will provide open access in the main library of YUFL (Yangon University of Foreign Languages) yufl.edu.mm
